WE NOMINATE

Robert Oppenheimer, one of the architects of the world in which we live and retiring this month as Director of The Institute for Advanced Study, who this week was thunderously applauded as he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Science from Princeton University. The significance of the award in addition to the recognition it extended to this eminent, 62-year old Princetonian, lies in the fact that it underscored the distinction he has added to an already distinguished institute and how through a "great sensitivity of spirit" and a kind of "personal magnetism" he has immeasurably strengthened the entire Princeton community of learning.

The appearance of the frail scientist on the Nassau Hall commencement platform before some 5,500 persons stirred memories of the Princeton community's reactions in 1963 when he was awarded the $50,000 Enrico Fermi Award, given by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, the agency that in 1954 by a 4-1 vote had labeled Oppenheimer a security risk on the basis of "fundamental defects of character." The consensus this week, as it was in 1963, was one of unabashed enthusiasm. All approached by TOWN TOPICS agreed with the observer who had noted: "Today's Commencement and this honor mark the end of an era, a span of two decades that has catapulted Princeton from the residential boondocks of New Jersey to the center of the world's stage."

The most moving memory of the chain reaction touched off in 1963 by the Fermi Award originated in Oppenheimer's study in Fuld Hall as a kind of preamble to a wide-ranging press interview. In a brief prepared text, Oppenheimer, an articulate humanist as well as a brilliant physicist, said in part: "Most of us look to the good opinion of our colleagues and to the good will and the confidence of our government. I am no exception." In those few words, without any further discussion of his own past, Oppenheimer broke nine years of silence and conjured up memories of the stigmata of the un-American phenomenon, "McCarthyism."

Elected to the New York Mineralogical Society at age 11 and a meteoric student at Harvard, where he completed four years of work in three and gave almost as much time to languages and art as he did to science, this native New Yorker and his career have come to symbolize the dawn of the atomic age. In 1942 he was a little-known physicist on the faculty of the University of California and the California Institute of Technology. Three years later, when he stepped down as a guiding genius of the Manhattan Project, he was a public figure and was extolled as the one man who could have taken in stride "three years of the most intense mental strain any man ever had to undergo."

The accounts of Oppenheimer's successes in directing the World War II atomic bomb laboratory at Los Alamos, N. M., are numbered among the thrilling sagas of modern American history. Equipment had to be shuttled to the bare desert installation from all parts of the nation, including in the early stages three train carloads of apparatus from Princeton, a cyclotron from Harvard and generators from Wisconsin. Long before the A-Bomb was exploded over Japan, Oppenheimer had molded into a single team an extraordinary galaxy of scientists as well as 6,000 military and professional workers. Throughout the hectic, nerve-wearing period, say official reports: "the main decisions were Oppenheimer's and all proved to be correct."

For his explorations of the mysteries of matter; for his understanding of the "special faith and dedication" of the profession of science; for believing that "we can keep on learning indefinitely"; he is our nominee as

REFERENDUM TUESDAY

On School Merger. Voters in Borough and Township will go to the polls Tuesday to cast the ballots that will decide whether the two school systems will be merged.

Town Topics has repeatedly expressed its wholehearted support of merger as the best way to provide the best education for all Princeton's children at the most reasonable cost, and it urges a "yes" vote on Tuesday.

Town Topics will have referendum results after 9:30 p.m. Tuesday. The number to call is 924-2200.

In the final days of the campaign, organizations and individuals have come forward to announce their positions on merger, or have repeated former statements of support or opposition. Residents have expressed opinions through "Mailbox." (See pages 22-24.)

Supporting merger are seven of the nine members of the Borough School Board, the Princeton Association for Human Rights (PAHR), the Princeton Pastors' Association and the Princeton Chamber of Commerce.

The Township school teachers' vote was so close—although merger had the edge—that the teachers' association does not feel it can take a stand either way. Borough teachers are solidly in favor of merger.

Mrs. Bernice Miller of the Borough Board and Laurence R. Holland of the Township Board repeated their opposition.

Alan Carrick, the only Borough Councilman who did not sign last week's Mayor and Council statement supporting merger, said on Tuesday night that he would cast his ballot for merger.

"It does seem to me that our most essential objective should be to mend a family rift quickly," Mr. Carrick said. "The loss of the high school tie would, I fear, make for a lasting cleavage between Borough and Township."

PROGRESS REPORT

The current issue of TOWN TOPICS, running to 56 pages, is eight pages larger than the corresponding issue a year ago. The volume of display advertising is 21% greater, despite the fact that not all requests for space could be filled in order to maintain a proper balance between news, pictures and advertising. Circulation this spring — also at a record high — has been running in excess of 17,500 copies weekly.

"It is certainly most regrettable that this issue has become pervaded with emotionalism. I myself considered the Miller Plan a fair and workable compromise solution. Apparently that plan was brought forward after the lines had hardened—in other words, much too late. Thinking of what I conceive to be the best for the community, I gave the curious circumstances that now confront us, I shall cast my individual Borough vote for merger."

Urges "Yes" Vote. The seven out of nine Borough School Board members who approve of merger issued a statement reminding Borough voters of their reasons for supporting kindergarten - through - 12th grade union with the Township:

"Regionalization with the Princeton Township School District is the most responsible course for the future of our school district. It offers the best prospects both educationally and financially.

"Regionalization will assure educational excellence in the High School and an early solution to the problem of overcrowding.

"The John Witherspoon School will remain an elementary school primarily for Borough Students.

"Borough taxes are not changed by regionalization, but separate school systems will be more expensive.

"We urge our fellow Borough citizens to support the recommendation of your School Board, your Superintendent, and your Teachers on June 21."

The statement is signed by John A. Buckland, E. Frederick Landbeck, Robert A. Lively, Thomas A. Moore, Harvey Rothberg, Sarah K. Strayer and Bonnie L. Wagner.

Graham Rohrer and Mrs. Miller are the Board members opposed to merger. Mr. Rohrer did not issue a formal statement this week, but Mrs. Miller said:

"I personally am not convinced that the issue of representation on the high school, which is the main motive for total merger, is important enough to the Township to justify their breaking up the Borough elementary school system or their breaking off from Princeton High School."

Mrs. Miller charges that merger would mean "forced intergration" and busing in place of the Princeton Plan, and that the John Witherspoon School's "educational program would be destroyed" by merger. Mrs. Miller expresses her belief that merger would "force Borough children into a pattern of attending at least three or four different schools in eight years."

She suggests sale of the high school to the Township as "a preferable alternative to merger since it would satisfy the Township and yet preserve the excellent Borough elementary school system, housed in the Borough-owned school."

Teachers' Vote Close. Borough school teachers announced last week that an "overwhelming majority" of them support merger. When Township school teachers voted this Monday on the question, 56 members of the Township Education Association voted to support merger and 45 voted their support of Township board member Laurence B. Holland's statement opposing merger.

"In the light of the survey results," said Frederick Lemone, president of the teachers' group, "the Association obviously does not have a clear mandate to publicly support either position."

Mr. Holland is the only Township Board member opposed to merger and he repeated his position in a statement this week. Mr. Holland urges separate systems and construction of a Township High School like the one proposed by the Citizens Advisory Committee. He suggests that healthy competition might flourish between Borough and Township and that merger could be considered at a later date.

He adds: "There are many indications of Borough habits and practices that are not reassuring; the Borough's recent endorsement of the Mill-Pond Plan at the expense of thoughtful and imaginative educative planning; the present state of the Borough junior high program; the current overcrowding at the High School, long foreseen, for which the Borough is responsible; the Borough's refusal to consider relinquishing majority control of a merged school board; the Borough's neglect in recent months to draw up tangible proposals for expansion of the high school plant with cost estimates for public consideration by the two communities; current efforts to "sell" merger in the Borough largely on a dollar-cents basis, the lower per-pupil expenditures that prevail in the Borough; the continuing efforts of the Borough Board to sell the Quarry Street School while the High School remains overcrowded."

PAHR Supports. Following a poll of its membership, PAHR (The Princeton Association for Human Rights) has announced its support of merger. "Complete separation of Borough and Township schools which would be achieved by construction of a Township High School would ultimately be detrimental to both communities in every conceivable way," PAHR officers stat.

PAHR believes that a merger system could provide the resources for special teaching and the services needed by students whose "educational and vocational horizons are severely limited. We lack those resources under present conditions and a separated system would be hard-pressed financially to provide them."

PAHR also believes that better education for Negroes and other minority groups "is likelier to be advanced more quickly under a single merged system than under two separated systems."

Pastors' Statement. The Princeton Pastors' Association has also endorsed merger. The endorsing statement was read at last Thursday's public meeting of the Borough Board by the Rev. Robert Spears of Trinity, past president of the Association, and a member of the Chandler Committee that

Where to Vote

Polls will be open in Borough and Township from 2 to 9 p.m. next Tuesday for the school merger referendum. Polling places are:

Borough: Election districts 1 and 8, Borough Hall; Districts 5 and 7, Quarry Street School; District 2, 3, 4, 5 and 9, Princeton High School.

Township: Election Districts 1 and 4, Community Park School; 2, 7 and 8, Johnson Park School; 5 and 6, Littlebrook School; 3 and 9, Riverside School.

There will be more machines at Township voting places and that last February's tie-up will not recur.

Absentee ballots, properly notarized, must be mailed in time to arrive in Trenton before the last mail is sorted at 9 p.m. Tuesday. Everyone who has applied for an absentee ballot must use it, even if plans have changed and the applicant will be in town.

recommended merger.

"To defeat merger will be to strengthen the barriers that divide us," the Pastors said. "There is no question in our minds that this issue is of basic importance to all of Princeton as to represent a true turning point in our community life."

"We are convinced that a unified school system is the only way to ensure educational excellence for the entire Princeton community in the years to come."

"To merge our schools will be to face together our common tasks and share our common opportunities and resources in a venture that is of prime importance to all of us: the education of our children."

At the same meeting, the Greater Princeton Chamber of Commerce stated its support of merger.

"We are now convinced that in the interest both of improving our school system and holding our taxes down, regionalization is desirable," the statement said.

"Creation of a separate Township High School would certainly cause tax increases in both Borough and Township. Strong schools and reasonable taxes are vital to the well-being of Greater Princeton. A single school system with a carefully coordinated program on all levels, is an asset of incalculable value to all our citizens."

BOARD SUMS UP

On School Merger Issue. The embattled Borough Board of Education, still divided 7-2 on school union with Princeton Township, held a last gasp trial at Thursday's public hearing in John Witherspoon School.

Lanited by a four-minute bell, each board member gave his final pitch at top speed and sat down to applause from residents who half filled the auditorium.

School Superintendent Chester R. Stroup, whose resignation takes effect on August 1, repeated his endorsement of school merger adding his weight to the board majority. The board later led a tour of the building.

"Critical Issue." Prof. Robert A. Liveley called the preservation of Princeton High School the "critical issue." He said, "This town has one of the best high schools in the state, and given the resources of this community, the potential of having one of the best high schools in the United States."

Urging support of merger, he stated that "Borough and Township students deserve each other as classmates. Our dedicated teachers deserve a student body worthy of their talents."

He noted that 125 PHS Latin students have won certificates of merit in a nation-wide competition. Of these, 61 are Township students, 35 Borough students; 11 Montgomery, 8 West Windsor, 6 Rocky Hill and 4 Plainsboro. "I think these simple figures illustrate the heart of the issue."

"Mutual Trust." Mrs. Bonnie Wagner stated that "expert after expert" in public education has emphasized "that asking for less than full kindergarten through 12th grade regionalization is asking for second best."

She quoted the Chandler Committee conclusion that the junior school proposal presents a "striking possibility" for improved education in the Borough.

"Having more students at this level would permit a greater depth of staffing and an improved program for the individual student, all at lower cost." She noted that the junior high students would have the use of Community Park.

The merger issue, she said, "is not a matter of plots or personalities, of politics or criticism. It is a matter of continuing to develop our school system . . . of building in mutual trust a stable school system with our nearest neighbor with whom we share so much."

"Rule or Ruin." Mrs. Bernice G. Miller stated that until municipal consolidation is achieved, "a merged school system will always be divided by the invisible fence of the Borough-Township line."

Continuing to advocate a regionalized high school, Mrs. Miller said that Montgomery and West Windsor Township would like to continue as sending districts for Princeton High School, and that parents living in other districts would "be happy to pay tuition" for their children at PHS. "The Borough Board could sell or turn over the high school to Princeton Township and become a sending district as a very inexpensive way to educate our high school children."

"Naughty Party?" Graham Rohrer, deeply involved in the planning and construction of the $2½ million John Witherspoon School, stated his opposition on the grounds that "if merger passes . . . our newly-created educational center is doomed." He said that the Borough, "with great success," has educated generations of Township children. "We have offered as a board and through our Citizens' Committee, many opportunities for compromise . . . Just who is the naughty party here?"

He disputed the proposed use of the new school as a K-5 school. "With this new educational center, the future of Borough education was never brighter!"

No Giveaway. "Don't let anyone tell you that the new school is going to be given away," Dr. Harvey Rothberg told the audience. "The two boards have agreed that it should remain an elementary school for the children of its vicinity, which is predominately a Borough neighborhood.

"But a new building by itself is not enough to assure a first class public school system at a price our taxpayers can afford . . . it is time to forget politics and to think of the next generation of school children."

TO FETE DR. STROUP

Dr. Chester Stroup, The Borough Board of Education and the Borough Teachers' Association will honor School Superintendent Chester R. Stroup at a banquet on Monday at Princeton High School. Dr. Stroup has resigned after 20 years as an administrator in the public school system and leaves August 1 to become superintendent of the Haddenfield public schools.

Mrs. Edward Roberts is general chairmao. Dr. Jeremiah Finch of Princeton University, a former member of the school board, will be the principal speaker.

Guests will include everyone who has worked with Dr. Stroup: teachers, retired teachers, present and former board members, secretarial, cafeteria and custodial staff members. The elementary school and junior school PTAs will be represented by their presidents.

Serving on the planning committee are: Ronald Gedaszek, president of the Teachers Association; Mrs. William Hurley, catering; Douglas Coulter and Herbert Highfield, tickets; Frank Dippery, program; Fred Siebelts, decorations; Miss Mildred Kaplan, gift; Mrs. Alan W. Richards, publicity; Frank Soda and Raymond Hunt, seating; Sylvan Friedman and William Trego, music.

DEGREES AWARDED

At University Commencement. Seven kinds of degrees were conferred upon 1,262 recipients Tuesday at Princeton University's 219th commencement exercises.

Princeton's President Robert F. Goheen awarded honorary degrees to Robert Oppenheimer, retiring director of the Institute for Advanced Study; Admiral Lloyd Mustin, attorney general of the United States, who was graduated from Princeton in 1943 and Philip K. Hitti, who organized the University's program in Near Eastern studies.

Charles Conrad Jr., Princeton '53 astronaut who will be command pilot for the Gemini XI flight; John W. Gardner, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Charles Scribner, president of the publishing firm and of the Princeton University Press; John C. Bennett, president of Union Theological Seminary; Otto Eckstein, economist and Northrop Frye, principal of Victoria College, University of Toronto, also received degrees.

Among the 624 bachelors of arts was Brian P. Leeb of West Orange, 70 years old, a member of the class of 1916 who will retire this month from the University's Board of Trustees. Mr. Leeb left Princeton in the spring of his junior

The University awarded a record number of Ph D s and M P A s / Masters of Public Affairs / Doctorates were presented to 223 and M B A s to 31. The latter figure reflects expansion in the graduate program of the Woodrow Wilson School.

In the graduating class of 1966 are students from 44 states, the District of Columbia, the West Cyroline Islands in the Pacific and 18 countries. The largest number comes from New York — 125. New Jersey is represented by 106, and Pennsylvania by 77.

Dean of the College J Merrill Knapp presented the undergraduate candidates to President Goheen and Dr Colin S. Pittendrigh, Dean of the Graduate School presented the candidates for advanced degrees. James F. Oates Jr. Charter Trustee, presented the candidates for honorary degrees.

POST OFFICE?

Suggested Plans Due. Two alternative Federal suggestions for a new Princeton post office are scheduled to be shown to Township officials soon

The Tune for June

The blanket 1
Unplugged in May.
Is now completely

June has brought hot weather a bit faster than usual, although inevitably there are some wide fluctuations. Readings in the first two weeks of the month have ranged from the high 80s to less than 50 degrees.

Some of that rain that has been missing from these parts for the last couple of weeks is due in the next few days, the Man reports. Possibly as early as Friday and maybe more Monday.

One sketch will show a joint building which could be shared by the post office and Township municipal employees. The second sketch will show a building for a post office only, one which could be built on land now occupied by the Township garage at the intersection of Valley and Witherspoon

Arthur Parsons of Philadelphia, the post office's real estate officer for this area, conferred early in May with Township Administrator Joseph R. Nini; R. L. Lenhart of the Chamber of Commerce; Fred Bialcher, president of Palmer Square, Inc. and Hans K. Sanders, chairman of the Township Planning Board

The Township is very cool indeed toward the idea of a joint facility. Mr. Parson is said to have been dismayed at the Township's coolness and he promised to come back in a few weeks with a pair of sketches.

The Township, at one time, saw a joint municipal building-post office as a golden means for solving many problems. After several conferences with Mr. Parsons, however, Township enthusiasm began to fade.

To begin with, the post office needs a great deal of ground floor footage — 16,000 to 18,000 square feet. This is about 3,000 square feet more space than Township officials could need for their offices on the second floor.

Under the Federal formula for calculating how much rent to pay for post office space the Township would have been lucky to break even. Just as an example, the formula would not take into consideration the fact that the new building would be built on Township land

However, Township Committee is indeed interested in the possibility of a post office building where the garage now stands. It might work this way. Federal money would pay for razing the garage and building the new post office. The Post Office Department would pay rent to the Township for the building and this rent could be used to pay off the cost of a new Township garage.

The triangle of land is nicely suited to truck parking, the construction of loading platforms, and so on. If the post office were built there, the Township would block off Valley Road at Route 206 where Terhune Road goes through, and convert the present raddled into parking lot or landscaped area.

TOWNSHIP APARTMENTS?

Report Submitted. A survey on multiple housing in Princeton Township shows that, out of 12 possible combinations of rentals and room combinations, only one would lose PLAYERS' PRESIDENT: Stuart Duncan, identified with successful off-Broadway productions, will serve as president of the new Great Road Players, a troupe of young actors who will provide stimulating summer theatre in Princeton.

News Of The THEATRES

READY TO GO

Great Road Players Set. The excitement of watching talented young people on the brink of professional careers in the theatre will definitely be part of the Princeton experience this summer.

The new Great Road Players will open their five-production season in the auditorium of Princeton Day School on Friday, July 8, and the young company has already begun to gather in Princeton from the campuses of Yale, Harvard and Columbia.

The opening bill is to be Anton Buechner's "Woyzek" and T.S. Eliot's "Sweeney Agonistes," to be played for ten days. Subsequent productions will run for a week each. The second offering will be a pair of Moliere farces, "The Imaginary Cuckold" and "The Flying Doctor."

The first children's show will be "Silly Soup," to be given on Saturday afternoon, July 16 at 2:30.

At an organization meeting held Sunday, The Great Road players was formally incorporated as a non-profit corporation and Stuart Duncan was elected president. John Lithgow is vice-president, Fred Blaicher is treasurer and Mrs. DeWitt Smith, secretary. William Henderson, student business manager for the Players, will serve as assistant secretary-treasurer.

Brochures will be in the mail Monday urging theatregoers to buy subscriptions (five plays for the price of four) and to become Patrons at $25 each. (The Players will gladly accept Patron donations of more than $25.) Each Patron will get a subscription.

The other plays in the series will be Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," the three plays in William Butler Yedt's "Cuchulain Saga" and, to close the season, John Gay's "Beggar's Opera."

Teen-Agers Wanted

Volunteer teen-agers, boys and girls, are needed to man the box-office, sew costumes work the lights, handle the scenery and play in crowd scenes with the new Great Road Players, just about to be in residence at Princeton Day School.

John Lithgow, Managing Director, has already approached William Trego, director of the Princeton High School Choir, for voices who can sing in "The Beggar's Opera" and the choir's Madrigal Group may be assigned to roles in that production.

"Twelfth Night" is another play that needs actors, and young people who sign up with the Players may well find themselves with lines to say, not just with spears to carry.

Anyone interested should call John Lithgow at 924-2275.

THE CUP RUNNETH OVER

For Community Players. "Epitaph for George Dillon" is a rarity for Princeton — a play that is up to Broadway standards.

The Community Players, in their hit-and-miss fashion, have tried a little bit of everything this year, but the current offering at the Murray Theatre is an uncanny blending of play and players. There is an indefinable mood that lingers after the final curtain — a criteria of all fine plays.

The crux of this British drama rests in the dilemma of two sensitive people who have been educated beyond their families, a grief shared by uncounted thousands of Americans as well. The years of bright hope have passed, middle age approaches, and the choice lies between one last lonely try for the brass ring and a stifling retreat home.

The Players have approached their roles with a compassion that gentles the raw reality of the theme. Trevor Owens is the unsuccessful playwright-actor George Dillon who has lived off women ever since he was born. He ruthlessly uses women in order to stay alive, his heart and mind absorbed in the theatre.

Skillful Portrayal. Scotty Bloch in the role of Ruth, the well-educated daughter who retreats home after her divorce, gives a skillful, understated portrayal of an embittered 40-year-old who has been had by a struggling writer cut from the same pattern as Dillon.

These two, fighting for survival in their different ways, are superbly drawn characters. As foils, there are beautiful, brainless Josie, played by Susan Rosenbaum; her mother, Mrs. Elliot, given by Lois Ann Cohen the touch of the eternal, smothering mother, and Percy Elliot, the husband allowed around strictly on sufferance, portrayed with fine impatience by Louis Lippa, the director.

The family circle includes another mindless daughter, shy, homely Norah who finds refuge in watching the Telly. Marie Miller gives Norah the hapless resignation the role demands.

On the fringe of this dreary, yet fascinating family situation surrounding Dillon and Ruth is a lesser evangelist, Colwyn-Stuart, played by Michael E. Bosworth, who conducts 15 minutes of the most insane conversation ever heard in a workingman's living room. The varying reception this is given by members of the household is a joy to behold.

Crises are precipitated by two outsiders, Robert Peck in a fine parody of a National Assistance (welfare) worker and Leonard Etz who offers to put on Dillon's play if he'll rewrite it to suit the provinces.

The playwrights, John Osborne and Anthony Creighton, have drawn up a superb play, skillfully structured, with telling entrances and exits such as are seldom seen. They have interwoven contrasting characters with bitter, sometimes droll humor. All of this, Mr. Lippa has joined with a well-chosen cast, giving them direction in a hundred little busynesses that lend restlessnessness to the family coop. The only real flaw in the production is that Mr. Owens does not look the part of a letcher, but his acting overcomes this.

"Epitaph for George Dillon" will be on the boards at the Murray this weekend and next. It is an absorbing drama worth seeing.

BAREFOOT IN THE PARK?

Not Quite. A ballet troupe called the Libran Players will present Tschaikowsky's ballet "Sleeping Beauty" at the Open Air Theatre in Washington Crossing on Saturday, June 25, at 2:30. It is the first children's program scheduled for the summer series.

The Libran Players was formed in 1961 by Frank Piper and Edward Earle for the Lambertville Music Circus, where the group performed

PLAYHOUSE

Born Free (now playing): Since it is a true story, taken from Joy Adamson's book recounting her adventures in Africa in raising a female lion cub to adulthood, "Born Free" could be called a semi-documentary. On the other hand, since it is not a filmed record of events as they occurred but a re-creation of them with professional actors and trained animals, it could also be described as a semi-fictional film.

Either way, it is a fine and absorbing movie, with special appeal for the family. Mrs. Adamson, wife of a game warden in Kenya, took into her home three female cubs whose mother had been killed, and became especially attached to one of them, given the name of Elsa.

Elsa, kept behind as a pet when the others were sent to a zoo, presents a number of unforeseen problems. The most fascinating part of the film deals with the Adamsons' efforts to un-do their "taming" of the lioness, so that she could fend for herself in the jungle.

GARDEN

Stop the World — I Want to Get Off (through Saturday): Tony Tanner as Littlechap dominates this British musical from beginning to end. Using pantomime, monologue, singing and dancing, he creates a character who evokes both laughter and sadness.

A filming of a stage production that stretches the confines of the theatre, "Stop the World" makes use of a camera that frequently stares right into the lights and looks over the head of the actor into the faces of a live audience.

Part of the success of the film is due to the nature of the story, which opens with clown Tony Tanner devising a pantomime routine that develops into a birth-to-death tale of Littlechap, "the eternal opportunist."

Among the songs heard are "What kind of Fool Am I?," "Once in a Lifetime," and "Gonna Build a Mountain."

The Oscar (Sunday thru Tuesday): This is a fast-moving, more-or-less inside story on Hollywood. The theme is the Machiavelian campaign waged by an actor to capture the golden statuette that symbolizes success in the movie world.

Stephen Boyd gives an ex-

CUDDLY
Koala Is Kozy. Usually gold isn't very cuddly unless your first name is Midas, but that koala bear at LaVake's! He's a bear with a pin in his back and you wear him on your lapel (not on your sleeve, silly: that's where you wear your heart.)

He's one of a family of amusing pins assembled by LaVake. You may prefer the rabbit with the umbrella (a damp bunny), or the cantering horse, every muscle flowing just so, or the fat doormouse with his curvy tail. If only we had a lapel. . . . .

Well, we do have a wrist, and here's a collection of charms to go around it. LaVake likes those big quarter-sized charms, and here's one with real little dollar signs jingling and dangling from a "money tree." Another shows a baby carriage in profile, standing on a pavement of rubies or sapphires. The owl with his diplama has yellow enamel eyes and the Buddha has a jade in the hollow of his hand.

We took a fancy to the dove with a love letter in his beak but earnest scholars might prefer the lamp of learning on a book.

The best charm by far, of course, is the thimble-sized Princeton mug in silver. You fill it up.

While we're on Nassau Street, let's consider the tiger head tie rack for Daddy, the one that comes in the furry orange-black striped box. (TIGER, not daddy!)

You can buy him that after he's bought, for you, the slim diamond sapphire bracelet, the one with alternating strands making lang figure eights. The sapphires are requise cut. LaVake has grouped several charming sapphire and diamond pieces together, including a circle pin, a square-cut sapphire ring guarded by a diamond on each side and some earrings.

More unusual, perhaps, is the dime-sized jade disc with a minute diamand precisely in the center. It's an earring and there are two just alike, in case your ears match. With the earrings goes a matching pin consisting of two cats on a fence with ruby feet. Cats are gold and jade, sort of intermixed and bow they got those red feet is anyone's guess.

Still in a green mood, we turn to a peridot and diamand bracelet. Peridot is an apple-green stone, clear as an emerald but less brooding. Wonderful, if you're a redhead.

SPECTRUM
At English Shop, You can be Go-Go or West-Went at The English Shop this summer. In short, pick your generation.

Shirts like a spotlight on irridescent tape — hot pinks and sizzling lemons, smoldering purples and wild oranges have been all stirred together with magnificent carelessness that leaves you giddy. Art nauveau? Sure! Paisley gone LSD? Yep.

Cole of California tones things down a bit with a sundress made of two panels, one lime and one yellow, each one printed with a different moss-gay print. A ten-inch band of black and white noundstooth check appears improbably as the hem. Shoestrings tie at the shoulders.

"Funtimer," by Cole, is white wide-ribbed pique with big "H" suspender bands.

For ladies' with a quieter philosophy of life, there are English Shop's Handmacher Weathervane suits in arnel-cotton for travel and/or autumn. A bark print in navy and white has a cool jacket neckline edged with a little stand-up collar and a looping navy bow.

The three-piecer is milk chocolate with a narrow white stripe along the skirt and the box jacket buttoned snugly with pearls. The overblouse, sleeveless of course, is white pique.

Dark, dark, bronze combined with black walks right into fall after it has toured the continent this summer. Its braidbound jacket is severely tailored, its walking skirt is eminently useable. Comes in royal and black, too.

Handmacher's burnt brown with white checks has a longer jacket belted in Safari fashion. You can see the swagger all the way from here.

Mosquitos got the bite on you? The English Shop suggests a jump suit. Not to jump away in, not at all, but to wear if mosquitoes are using you for hors d' oeurves.

These suits are fluffy terry cloth in white, blue or pink. Wide in the neckline and finished off with a flattering collar, they descend to the ankle and wrist. A sash ties them around the middle. You put one on, step out onto the terrace, and snap your fingers at mosquitoes because what's left of you to bite except your nose?

Jump suits in terry are designed for other purposes, of course, and they will protect you at the shore if you burn easily and badly, keep you warm in chill after-swim breezes and even serve in lieu of a beach towel.

cellent performance in the lead role. He is an angry, arrogant, brutal man, devoid of any quality that makes a true star, yet he climbs to the top. Singer Tony Bennett appears as his personal manager, and Elke Sommer as the girl Boyd chases and abandons.

Others in the cast are Milton Berle, Eleanor Parker, Jill St John, Joseph Cotton, Ernest Borgnine, and Edie Adams. There are cameo appearances by a number of well-known actors. The women are all gorgeous.

The film is definitely adult, with the dialogue in particular putting it out of the "family" classification.

PRINCE

The Agony and the Ecstasy (now playing) The historic conflict between two of the greatest personalities of the Renaissance, sculptor-painter Michelangelo and Pope Julius II, is a fascinating story. More than 11 million copies of the book by Irving Stone have been sold throughout the world.

The film version, both panned and praised by the critics, casts Charlton Heston as Michelangelo and Rex Harrison as Pope Julius II. The decoration of the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel is the crux of the battle of wills between the two men.

Michelangelo's major sculptures are shown in the 10-minute prologue, an interesting "short" in itself. The entire shooting took place in Italy, in wide screen and in color. An exact duplicate of the Chapel was erected. Habitate rooms in the Orsini Castle at Bracciano were used as period sets, and location trips were made to a Carrara quarry in the Apuan Alps for scenes depicting the lifting of blocks exactly as it was done during the Renaissance. A passion for exscitilude went into the designing of the costumes and sets for this lavish film.

Heston gives a certain authenticity to his role and Rex Harrison is excellent as the waring pope. There is a highly impressive action scene showing the papal forces in battle. (running time 2 hrs. 20 minutes, plus intermission)

AT NEW HOPE: Lisa Kirk will co-star with Robert Alda in "Riverwind," a musical opening Monday at the Bucks County Playhouse.

IT'S TIME FOR MUSIC

In New Hope, "Riverwind," an off-Broadway musical, will open next Monday at the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope with Lisa Kirk and Robert Alda as the stars.

Miss Kirk is well-remembered by Cole Porter fans for the songs she sang in "Kiss Me, Kate" and by Persian Room fans for her engagements in that supper club.

Mr. Alda won the New York Drama Critics' Circle award for his portrayal of Guy Masterson in "Guys and Dolls" on Broadway, and he last appeared in New York in "What Makes Sammy Run."

"Riverwind" has a score by John Jeanings and a mad of praise from the New Yorker: "brisk, funny and touching." The New York Times (Taubman Kauffman) said: "It is not often that an off-Broadway musical is blessed with such agreeable tunes and lyrics."

"You Can't Take It With You" will play through this Saturday.

"FANTASTICKS"

At Middlebush. For the first time, the Villagers of Middlebush will present a musical and also for the first time, a production which is currently running on Broadway. Or off-Broadway, in this instance.

It is "Fantasticks," now in its seventh year in New York and about to begin its first weekend in Middlebush. It will open this Friday in the Barn Theatre in Middlebush and will play for three weekends, through July 4.

The conference was sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts, the North American Ballet Association, the American Guild for Musical Artists and the National Regional Ballet Association.

two-piece casuals. The solid top is sleeveless and round necked, in myrtle blue, shell pink, violet, lime, white or turquoise and a flowered print skirt goes under it all.

And then, there are floral twosomes with those same flowered skirts and flowered tops instead of plain. Quite a garden.

A sportier combination comes in stripes, with sleeveless or short-sleeved blouses on top of striped skirts, or those minute field flowers in pastels—incredibly light pastels—in white, worn with brilliant skirts like turquoise, lemon, avocado. Saud sod steel, too.

An arnel in junior sizes, but so versatile it fits everybody all the time, is dark-and-white print with cowl neckline, no sleeves and a sort of 1930's flared skirt. You wear it traveling. Comes in a two-piece, too, with A-line skirt.

KILL, KILL, KILL

Algae. Killing algae is a fairly harmless way of working off aggressive steam, and anyone with a swimming pool has plenty of opportunity for being in on the kill.

Sylvan Pools is suggesting this year that you use Daxan, a concentrated form of chlorine, which works competently as an algaecide in addition to performing certain other vital functions in the family swimming pool.

You use Daxan in a new automatic swimming pool chlorinator which needs no maintenance (ah, there!) and keeps the pool aggressively clean at all times.

The chlorinator has a seamless tank which will not corrode and can't get into trouble because it has no moving parts. It's made of polyester, reinforced with fiberglas, and it's connected to the main recirculation system of your pool to form a bypass system.

The Daxan is a concentrated, dry form of chlorine which contains a minimum of 95% available chlorine—more than any other sanitizer. It comes in briquettes, and you put these briquettes into the tank so that the Daxan can be released into the pool as water passes over the briquettes. Simple as sugar dissolving in iced tea.

The Chlorosolver has been so designed that the same amount of chemical is fed into the pool each day, eliminating those annoying periods of very high chlorine, alternating with times when you have practically no chlorine at all.

Sylvan Pools operates in Princeton through its office to the Princeton Shopping Center. The number to call is 921-6166.

Know what Daxan is? Tetrachloroglycoluril.

How To Survive

Cory S. Kemmler

We read a piece about the old argument whether men or women are the better drivers. Some authorities say there's not much difference, that it depends upon each individual's own attention to his or her driving. They said that regardless of sex, it is the one who concentrates solely on driving while driving who chalks up the best record. Some studies do claim that women are the better drivers. Another reports that men are more often in accidents caused by drowsiness, drinking or speed whereas women are more often in accidents caused by emergency situations, distractions in the car, and fatty driving. (This comes from surveys, not from us) If our column causes more thinking about how to avoid accidents, it serves a good cause, just as we want to serve you well. money for the municipality and that a "slight loss" of about $1,000 a year in taxes.

The report, on the impact of multiple housing in the Township, was prepared by Herbert H. Smith Associates of Trenton for the Sandean Construction Company, and was submitted Monday night to the Township Planning Board.

The Board has turned the 24-page study over to its planning consultant, Jack Kendrex for analysis and report. Eventually, it will probably be given to the new citizens' advisory committee on housing in the Township, scheduled to meet late this month.

Robert G. Strong, vice-president of Herbert H. Smith Associates, and director of the three-man Township survey team, told TOWN TOPICS that the report presents a series of 12 various rental-room combinations.

How Much in Taxes? "We considered three rental scales and four combinations of room sizes. We found that the only losing situation for the Township would be apartments renting for $100 to $145 a month and having 60% two-bedroom units, 30% one-bedroom units and 10% efficiency apartments," Mr. Strong said.

At the highest level plotted by the survey — a rental scale of $150 to $195 — the Township tax office would gain by $6 to $14,000 a year in taxes, per 100 units, in making their calculations, Mr. Strong's team considered the impact of multiple housing units on the Township's school population and the school tax, Mr. Strong said.

The team assumed, conservatively, that the apartments would have a 7% vacancy rate and Mr. Strong admits that this would be far above actuality. He does not really think any units would be vacant for very long. If the units are full, the tax gain to the Township would be greater.

So far as location is concerned, the report is not specific. However, it does recommend certain criteria to the Planning Board: direct access to a major road so that traffic will not clog minor residential roads; existence of public water and sewers and strict attention to aesthetics so that the apartments would still be attractive after a number of years.

"This aesthetic factor is very important," Mr. Strong said.

In other business Monday night, the Board approved the Bucci auto laundry sketch, stipulating that the old "elbow" of Alexander be renamed to avoid confusion and that the old section of Alexander be one way all the way. The intersection with Springdale must also be adjusted to conform to the engineer's requirements.

This means, so far as anyone can tell, that lower Alexander will have two car washes almost directly across the street from one another.

The Board gave final approval to the Duffield Associates development west of Bayard Lane and south of Mountain Avenue. The development's street, formerly called Pony Cart Lane, will be Duffield Road, after Edward Duffield who served as acting president of Princeton University in the early '30s.

SENIOR KILLED

Struck By Lightning. A Princeton University senior, scheduled to graduate with honors, was struck and killed by lightning last week in Rye, N. Y.

Charles Cannon, 22, was hit by a bolt after leaving the Shenorock Shore Club in the rain with Janet Murkland, 21, of Glen Cove, Md. Miss Murkland was also struck and was treated for minor burns at United Hospital.

Cannon, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Cannon of Scarsdale, N. Y., was a graduate of Scarsdale High School in Westchester County, N. Y. He entered Princeton with the class of 1965 but withdrew for a year for treatment of ear trouble.

He served as a platoon leader in the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps. His naval science professor, Colonel Thomas J. Ahern, called the tragedy "a one-in-a-million accident for a one-in-a-million boy — one of the finest students I've ever taught."

Cannon was a biology major in Princeton, where he earned dean's list honors in his sophomore and junior year. He was a member of Quadrangle Club and a member of the freshman crew in 1962.

1ST COMMENCEMENT HELD

By Princeton Day School. Princeton Day School, formed by a merger of Miss Fine's School and Princeton Country Day School, held its first commencement last week with 22 students receiving diplomas.

Graduating with high honors were Sarah Jaeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiroid H. Jaeger, Rocky Hill; and Enid Sackin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Sackin, Trenton; with honors, Susan Bonthron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bonthron; Gail Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman O. Hood; Ann Hadley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hughey, Jr.; and

JUVENILE OFFICER?

Borough to Discuss. A full-time juvenile police officer for the Borough has been requested by about 90 residents in petition, and the Princeton High School PTA has been urging a full-time officer for some weeks.

As a result, Mayor Henry S. Patterson has recommended Borough sponsorship of some "very frank discussion" next month by petitioners, PTA, the Traffic Safety Committee and Juvenile Conference Committee.

Mayor Patterson, Councilman William Walker (Police Commissioner) and Chief Peter J. McCrohan mused about the problem at length during Tuesday night's Council meeting. Ralph Procaccino, the Juvenile Officer, does regular shift duty like other members of the force, Mayor Patterson explained, but is available for juvenile work almost all the time.

A full-time juvenile officer would really mean budgeting an additional man on the force, Mayor Patterson said, and he suggested that when people ask for a full-time juvenile specialist, they are really referring to a "probation officer" skilled in juvenile guidance. Such a person might conflict with the work being done by R. Donald Barr, Recreation Director, the mayor said, and he added that whatever is done in recreation and guidance for young people should be done in an overall package not piecemeal.

An ordinance appropriating $121,000 for the Jackson Street re-alignment was introduced and will be heard on July 12. Fred Blaicher, president of Palmer Square, Inc., commended Council and Councilman Ellwood Godfrey in particular, for concluding the Jackson Street agreements.

"It's been 30 years since this was first proposed," Mr. Blaicher said.

APPROVE DRUNK DRIVING BILL: "If a guy drinks and he drives, he's not a safe driver," says Joe Luhrman (right), who favors the new bill requiring suspected drunk drivers to take a drunkometer test. Echoing his agreement is Mario Cifelli. (Staff Photo)

Question of the Week

Question: What is your opinion of the bill passed by the New Jersey Legislature that requires every suspected drunken driver to take a drunkometer test or face the loss of his license?

Where asked: Around town

Lewis Ferruca, New Brunswick, owner of University Barber Shop, 1 Palmer Square: I don't think that's right because it puts a driver under a form of dictatorship. After an ordeal like that he will be practically censured in his community. He'll have a black mark against him, a stigma. That's not an opinion, it's a fact, as far as I'm concerned. I think it is a little too harsh. I would like to see them come up with some other bill that would be for the betterment of the majority.

Al Rugers, Flemington, mechanic: I think it is a good bill. Nobody likes to drink more than I do, but I don't believe in people driving after they've drunk too much. I think the laws against drunk driving should be made even stiffer than they are. Most of the time it seems drunk drivers don't hurt themselves but innocent people. Do I think this law will help? Let's put it this way: it isn't going to hurt any.

Richard L. Silvis, 51 Leigh Avenue, employee, Princeton Maintenance, Route 206: My opinion is that if any one gets nabbed riding wildly down some street and is stopped and asked to take this test to prove whether he is drunk or not, I think he should cooperate. But this taking his license if he refuses, I don't agree with. I think this is something that should be decided in court. I think this goes too far.

Joseph Luhrman, 261 Jefferson Road, addressograph operator, McGraw Hill: I'm in favor of it. If a guy drinks and he drives, he's not a safe driver — and I don't want to get killed!

Mario Cifelli, 28 Leigh Avenue, usher, Garden Theater: I think it is a good idea. I don't like the idea of drunk drivers. There's too many on the road as it is. I just saw one yesterday on Alexander Street — he almost hit a wall.

Mrs. A. S. Alexander Jr., 61 Westcott Road, housewife: I think it's terrific! The main reason is I don't see any reason why one shouldn't have to take that test. Also, I think it will help serve as a deterrent

Mrs. Elizabeth O'Gorman, Titusville, secretary: I think it is a good law, if it is not abused. In other words, if you just have a glass of wine, don't try to make a federal case out of it. I do think it will help cut down drunk driving — something had better work!

Bill Kane, Somerville, driver for United Parcel Service: I don't think a driver should be made to take it. Some can drink more than others. Let's face it, one guy can get drunk on a glass of beer while another can drink a lot and not feel it. I don't think it's fair. I also think this is an invasion of a person's right not to have to testify against himself.

Scott Reid, 26 Westcott Road, student at St. Mark's School: I don't think it's right. I feel there are a lot of people who can drink and not get drunk. I think they ought to investigate where a person had been drinking and try to determine how much he had before they make any arrests. A license means a lot to some people.

Theodore Reed, 285 Hawthorne Avenue, president, The Cutler Insurance Agency: I'm in favor of it. So many accidents are caused by people who have a few drinks too many that something had to be done to them. Unfortunately, every once in a while there is a severe injury or life-disabling type of thing which makes for a serious situation. I'm definitely in favor.

Jacob MacFarland Jr., Hightstown, salesman: I see nothing wrong with it. It's a perfectly good idea. Something had to be done to get those drunken drivers off the road. They never get hurt themselves: it's always the other person.

Jacob Freibaut Jr., Hamilton Square, driver for Decker's Dairy: I think it is a good thing. If they suspect a driver who killed somebody in an accident of being drunk at the time, and the only way you can prove it is with this test and he refused to take it, then I don't think anybody like that should have his license. I know it is natural if you get caught in a situation like this to try Nassau and Witherspoon in front of the First National Bank will be moved down the block to Palmer Square East in front of Princeton Bank and Trust. Council voted to recommend the change to state highway officials.

Thomas C. Jamieson Jr., attorney for First National, said the change should be made in the interests of public safety and he cited double-parked buses and the blocked pedestrian crosswalk.

"Everybody wants the buses, but not in front of them," observed Mayor Patterson. Twelve residents in the Evelyn Place area have asked to have the bus stop moved west to Queenston Place. Traffic Safety will explore.

Nobody showed up to support a residents' petition asking for removal of the "no parking" provisions on Nassau between Charlton and Murray so Council shrugged it aside. Traffic Safety was against removing the restrictions.

Council endorsed the application of the Princeton Study Center for $5,485 in OEA funds to expand the Center's program, particularly for "functionally illiterate" children.

Councilman Enoch Durbin reported that private contributions are being sought to raise $7-10,000 for a "Lesley Bush" 10-meter diving tower at the new Community Gardens pool.

Mayor Patterson said he not only approved the tower but would contribute to it, providing Miss Bush, Princeton's 1964 Olympic diving champion, dedicated and inaugurated it.

Question Of The Week

and get out of it. If a driver knows beforehand he faces the loss of his license, I think he'll think twice the next time before he drinks and drives."

David Gates, The Graduate College, graduate student, economics: "I'm in favor of it. If you take the word of the medical profession that it is possible to determine at what percentage of alcohol in the blood a driver is no longer able to adequately control his driving, it does provide a more accurate standard than to rely just on the judgment of the officer."

Thomas Milbach, Trenton, salesman: "I don't know if you can really tell by this test if a person is drunk. You can tell if he has a certain amount of alcohol in his system but you can't necessarily tell if he is drunk. Some people can hold more than others and a person who drinks regularly won't feel the effects of the same amount of liquor as one who drinks infrequently. I don't think its fair; it's probably safe but not fair."

ALL FOR ART: One of the exhibits at the Sharon Studios' spring art show was this oil by Nancy Darrow, 137 Hickory Court, painted when she was 12. Nancy is now 15. With the picture is Mrs. Herbert Abelson who assisted Mrs. Sharon during the show. More than 60 young artists displayed their craftsmanship in copper, stone, clay, watercolor, oil and plastic media at the show, which was held at the Princeton Jewish Center (Staff Photo).

Patrick Foley, 413-B Devereux Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cox, Perrineville Road, Hightstown, all on June 10.

A son, Daniel, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John P. Dimukes of Fackler Road on June 8 in Helene Fuld Hospital.

Dognappers at Work?

Eight large dogs have been reported lost to the Small Animal Rescue League during the last four weeks. One family has lost two dogs.

According to Mrs. Jeanne Graves of the League, there have been warnings lately that dognappers are on the prowl in this area, looking for dogs to sell to laboratories. "Putting two and two together, I have every disappearance of these reason to believe that the large dogs is very suspicious."

The League urges all owners to keep tabs on their dogs.

For Shakedown. A Rocky Hill youth is being held in Mercer County Jail in $2000 bail to await action by a grand jury for trying to obtain money from a Princeton teenager by force.

James W. Titus, 20, Rocky Hill, received a preliminary hearing Monday before Magistrate Theodore T. Tama, Jr. He was charged with trying to take money last week from John E. Gallaudet, 18, of Edgerstone Road.

Police said the incident took place in a rest room at Renwick's Restaurant, 50 Nassau Street. According to their report, the defendant forced Gallaudet into the rest room, slammed him against a wall and demanded that he turn over all his money. His shakedown netted about $1 in change, police said.

A Time to Hold Hands.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

A friend of mine has a saying written in old English letters above the fireplace in his summer cabin. It reads: Fear knocked at the door, faith answered, no one was there.

I hope Princeton voters answer the school merger question with faith — faith in our community, faith and trust in each other. If we refuse to hold hands at this juncture, boys and girls, it may be a long, lonely walk for all of us.

FRED BAUER
63 Jefferson Road

'Keep Control Near Home.'
To the Editor of Town Topics:

It has distressed me much to witness the current arguments, rather than discussion, on the subject of merger. I feel that these have been based on details of present circumstances and nostalgia rather than an objective view of the future.

Accordingly, I suggest a careful look at this inevitable near future. Recent population forecasts have been made by Raymond and May for the Princeton area (1985). While these are dramatic, they are based on reliable authority and I consider them entirely plausible.

As I noted publicly at the time of drafting the Township Zoning Ordinance in 1958, the immediate Princeton area ("The Princetons" as Raymond-May term them) can never grow as fast nor be as dense as their neighbors. Unlike the easy flat land both north and south of us, the remaining area of Princeton Township is mostly a rock pile inhospitable to building of any kind or economic level, and the Borough is already built up. Accordingly, the Raymond-May figures appear to me to be possibly high with respect to the Township and low with respect to our neighbors.

The two "Princetons" present an entirely manageable combination with a moderate rate of growth (49%), whereas other combinations are both larger and face sudden problems of appalling magnitude (272%). What also must not be overlooked is the geographic remoteness and impact of traffic on the Borough streets if townships to the south and east are contemplated as permanent partners in lieu of Princeton Township.

My views can be summarized as follows:

1. The Borough is too small to afford adequate schools by itself.

2. It must depend on some other districts.

3. Present sending districts are Princeton Township, Montgomery, West Windsor, Rocky Hill, and Hightstown.

4. Only by working with Princeton Township can we keep control near home.

5. Other present sending districts will make the Borough a traffic door mat and inevitably put future control farther afield.

CHARLES K. AGLE

Law Is Clear.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Last week there was a letter signed by Mrs. J. D. Brown criticizing certain statements made by eight Borough citizens opposed to the proposed school merger. I am replying on behalf of those eight citizens.

I. If merger passes, the Board which takes over the direction of the school system on 1 July 1966 will not be elected. It will be appointed by the Commissioner of Education — to hold office until February of 1967. It is during this critical eight month period, when the Borough has no elected voice in the school system, that the major decisions on educational policy, personnel, pupil allocation, and financing will be made. Also during this period there will be ample opportunity for the "Ridolfi Bill" to be resubmitted, so that when a new Board is elected, the Township will have a 5-4 majority. 2. The law is not clear as to whether a return to a rateable basis for assessing taxes would or would not require a referendum. But even assuming it would be required, that referendum would be voted on by the residents of the entire merged district, which will have a large Township majority. A return to the rateable basis would thus seem assured. The result? An immediate 14% increase in Borough taxes and an 8% decrease in township taxes.

3. We don't believe any one feels that "If we vote NO" all our school problems will go away." We are convinced that if we vote "YES," our real problems are just beginning.

4. Under the proposed pupil assignment plan — and this the Borough Board now freely admits — Borough students will attend at least three schools from kindergarten through 8th grade (K-5 in a "neighborhood" school, grade 6-8 in Community Park, and grades 7 and 8 in Valley Road). This compares with a single John Witherspoon School for all Borough children, kindergarten through eighth grade if merger is defeated. And even the proposed plan may well be discarded in favor of some other plan where even more busing is required. Busing will indeed be an issue of major importance in any merged system.

There seems to be general agreement on our objective, excellence in our public school system. Our differences lie in finding the best means to that end. We also share with Mrs. Brown a desire for a stable and harmonious town. We fail to understand, however, how

STUART CAROTHERS

125 Library Place

Editor's Note: The law is very clear on the "rateables" vs. "per pupil" question. Thomas P. Cook, counsel to the Borough School Board, cites Section 18:8-19 of the Revised Statutes of New Jersey. There is NO way in which a Regional School Board using a "per pupil" enrollment basis for allocation, may change to a basis of rateables for the apportioning of current expenses.

Mr. Cook conferred with Eric Groeninger, Assistant Commissioner of Education for the state of New Jersey, on the point and Mr. Groeninger confirmed the position of the law. Mr. Cook set forth the law's provisions in a statement given to the Borough Board of Education on June 2, 1968.

The Regional Board would be appointed on July 1 from members of both Borough and Township Boards, who are indeed ELECTED School Board officials. The Borough would have an elected voice through these Borough School Board members, and would indeed have a majority voice of five over the Township. The Borough would keep its majority ratio of five to four over the Township UNTIL THE 1970 CENSUS, not just until February of next year.

The proposed pupil allocation plan involved NO busing of Borough children.

Let Reason Prevail,

To The Editor of Town Topics:

The Princeton Community is again going to be given the chance to merge the educational systems of the Township and the Borough.

NOTICE

TOWN TOPICS regrets that the number and the length of letters to Mailbox this week did not permit publishing all of those which appear in full, and that a few had to be omitted entirely. Every effort was made to insure that those which appear are an accurate reflection of opinions expressed on school merger.

The issue in my opinion, is a very straight forward one: whether this community wants a total education system for all its children which is second to none by making the proposed merger become reality, or whether our community will be mortally split not only on issues of education but on all major issues with which it will be confronted as our population increases.

It is my hope that all citizens of the Princeton community-both Negro and white-will overwhelmingly approve the merger of our school systems on June 21. It should be pointed out to our Negro fellow citizens that the educational merger is a major step forward with wide implications for the concepts of an integrated community and an integrated school system.

The merger will mean that all citizens will be served and receive the full educational rights they are entitled to in all parts of the Princeton community. It means that the concept of equality in education will be spread throughout our entire town. This concept is supported by State and Federal laws and also guaranteed by the hardworking individuals and organizations in our town who are dedicated to seeing that democracy really begins to work in a very real way in our community.

Let us not let this second opportunity to merge our school systems slip through our fingers. Let us listen to the voices of reason and not to the voices that seem to have at their goal the protection of special interests in their particular "establishments".

Vote for merger on June 21!

STEVE M. SLABY

Merger Is Inevitable.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

The publication of the Township High School Committee's report raises a new question in the merger discussion: would not the erection of a new high school in the Township be better for secondary education in the Princeton Community in the long run?

1) The new facility would be far superior in terms of adaptability to modern teaching methods, and especially with its emphasis on guidance counselling, than the present high school.

2) It would seem likely that with the creation of a new high school, many of the teachers now at the Borough High School would not have to relocate.

3) The concept of the proposed Township High School would make it possible to provide room for the Borough when West Windsor grows to the point where it will require its own high school.

4) The traffic congestion implicit in the proximity of the present High School to the Witherspoon School would be avoided for the Township, and, eventually for the Borough.

5) With Township land becoming scarcer, delay in replacing the present high school would increase the difficulty in finding anothee suitable site.

In short, merger of the two school systems is desirable and almost inevitable. It is to the advantage of both Township and Borough to accomplish it with a high school facility that is better able to accommodate present and future developments in secondary education. If the Borough High School is not outmoded now, it will be in ten years.

Nothing Comes for Free.

To The Editor of Town Topics:

. . . The Boards of Education have repeatedly said that political trickery should not be employed. So, should we overlook the Batman and Robin scramble to get the OK for the June vote?

It is claimed that Township student population will level off at 1,000 or 1,200. (Ah, that new math is tricky.) I read an extensive and reliable survey which indicated a figure of 2,000 in the near future.

Another statement says population in other nearby areas will level off and is available. This with the intent to create concern for continuance of sending districts—however he failed to mention that much of that land is farmland and very productive. Other assertions and threats, such as 'massive tax increase' have been glibly cast out — so far I haven't read where they, whenever they get control, will phase out the Borough . . .

The 'Ridolfi circus' was the height of redundancy — the Borough Board is the Township Board, so what possible difference could it, the bill, have made since the two boards are fraternal. You would have to be painfully naive to go on believing that the Borough, in the event of merger, will continue to exercise control of the school system — it would be soon obviated.

They say schools are not far away and bussing is not an issue. Ask some of the Township housewives how far — and busses, contary to innocent belief, do not travel a straight line. They follow a circuitous route and create a major traffic headache. But it would be utterly ridiculous for any Borough child to be bussed to school! And that is truth.

Perhaps the sending districts could very well offer a more substantial, a more integral, and possibly a more loyal alliance for the Borough. The Township, by way of its pro-merger body, has all but alienated itself as a partner for the Borough. So, drink their coffee with the 'merged-in persuasive flavor,' but always remember — you don't get anything free for nothing . . .

They have tried hard, much too hard, to sell it — there's a catch to it, somewhere.

Continue Community Unity.

To The Editor of Town Topics:

In all the voluminous rhetoric on the regionalization question there seems to me to be one aspect that has been quite generally obscured . . . That is the dilemma facing those many families who live, as we do, on about a seven mile perimeter dividing the two political communities, whose residence is decided by a few feet of land one way or another, whose next door neighbor on one side is in the Borough and on the other, or across the street in the Township . . .

The joint high school for several generations has done more than anything else to unify not only these neighborhoods but also the entire community. Mory Smith (Borough), plays the cello in the school orchestra; John Jones next door in the Township plays the drum . . . and I could go on. How will disjointing the high school affect . . . that remarkable spirit of support, loyalty and pride the entire Princeton Community including the students themselves, has felt for its high school?

. . . We now find ourselves unwillingly facing the possibility of a great double tragedy: the break-up of the high school and the division of neighborhoods. Therefore, I believe we should concentrate all our efforts for the preservation of our fine school, for its outstanding educational achievement and for its successful—up to this time—uniting of both communities.

For such a terribly important objective can we not show graciousness and charity and put aside our differences? A projection of tax rise or fall can never be really guaranteed—look at what's happened in the Township — and disagreement on methods of education can be arbitrated by sensible and wise people . . .

For over forty years we have lived in Princeton Borough with a few feet of land in the township. Certainly this divisive line should not be the determining factor in the education of our children and especially in the make up of the high school.

We love Princeton: we have had children in the Borough schools, both elementary and high. We now plead for continued community unity as exemplified by our high school. Don't break it up.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

On behalf of the Princeton Youth Association, I would like to thank you for your extensive coverage of the Princeton Student Lounge Project. All the publicity we have received has really helped and has made the community more aware of the problems we are facing and the projects we are planning.

I hope that through newspaper coverage will come a greater understanding between the young and old communities. Thank you again.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

This year's Princeton Hospital Fete was indeed a Lucky 13th in every way. The largest crowd in Fete history came to enjoy the day and to support the Hospital in a willing and most generous way. The gross amount received was recordbreaking and we shall publish these figures just as soon as they are known to us.

We wish to thank sincerely everyone who came to the Fete and everyone who contributed in any way toward making our Lucky 13th the best Fete ever.

POOL OPENING DELAYED

Now Set for July 15. The Community Park Pools will not open until July 15 and maybe not even then, depending on the weather.

R. Donald Barr, Recreation Director, reported at a meeting of the Joint Recreation Commission last week that rain had slowed progress on the three pools and delayed the opening from July 1 to July 15. Mr. Barr added, "Every day of rain we get from here on will push the opening back the much."

"All the contractors realize the great urgency to finish as soon as possible," he continued. "I can say that all of them are working as diligently as possible." Mr. Barr pointed out there has been no delays other than those caused by the weather.

Likewise, the bath house contractor is trying to meet the July 15 deadline, Mr. Barr said, adding, "If we can complete half of the bath house, we may use a temporary partition."

The delay mas created a personnel problem. The staff of attendants was hired to run the pool on the basis of a July 1starting date. "It is," admitted Barr, "a large problem."

He explained that the Recreation Commission is now hiring on the basis of a "two-week leeway". However, he emphasized, we are going to have to start paying salaries on August 1 whether the pool is finished or not. We're going to lose instructors; a lot can't wait 'til August 1," he said.

The contract for the construction of a fence around the pool complex to keep unauthorized people out, was

PEOPLE
In The News

The Kiwanis Club of Princeton will award its first "Youth of the Month" citation this Thursday to Holt Murray, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holt A. Murray of Stuart Road.

Now a Hun School junior, Holt is a young scientist who spent six years in a one-room school in Harbourton, became intrigued with electrical mazes, while an 8th grader in the Pennington Elementary School, and spent four summers developing an electronic pattern memorizing device which won a merit award last May 15 in the American Psychological Association competition in Dallas.

Holt Murray

The device, which sends a theoretical mouse through a maze, very nearly failed to enter the APA competition because it was almost destroyed in transit. With the help of Gerald Donaldson, his Hun School science teacher, Holt spent 20 of his first 24 hours in Dallas reconstructing the device. When the award was announced, Hun celebrated by closing school for the day.

A soccer and lacrosse player and wrestler at Hun, Holt turns to tennis in the summertime, under the eagle eye of his mother, former women's singles champion in Trenton, and with her brother, James Waldron, former mixed doubles champion. His father is vice-president of Crescent Insulated Wire and Cable Company, Trenton, and Holt's reason for developing his maze was "to see if I'd like electronics as a career."

He's turned instead to chemistry and his main worry is that only three or four students at Hun have signed up for advanced work and that possibly the course will be cancelled.

Warm-mannered, modest about his difficult work, there is a glimpse of steel when he says of his home workshop and the younger members of his family, "My two brothers and my sister are banned from this area!"

Anthony W. Hailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cumbler, 84 Rosedale Road, has been named to the Honor Council at The Hun School. He was also named editor-in-chief of "The Edgerstounian, Hun's yearbook.

Highest Honors in history, he has been appointed a University Fellow in the graduate college at Princeton University.

Pamela J. Hasenzahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Hasenzahl, 139 Randall Road, has been elected to the Laurel Society at Lake Erie College in Painesville, Ohio. The Society honors juniors who have shown outstanding achievement in the areas of scholarship, leadership and service to the college. Miss Hasenzahl has also been chosen to serve on the Dorm Council during the 1966-67 academic year.

James Pietrinferno, son of of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Pietrinferno, 237 Mt. Lucas Road, has been chosen as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow for 1966-67. He will attend Bucknell University this fall where his tuition and fees will be paid by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation for one year and he will receive a living stipend of $2,000.

Glen B. Miller, Jr., 243 Russell Road, has been elected secretary of Johnson & Johnson Foundation for one year and is one of the graduate of the University of North Carolina and Columbia Law School, he has served as assistant general counsel and secretary of the management board at Johnson & Johnson since 1963.

From 1961 to 1963 he was a director of Ethicon, Inc., a Johnson & Johnson affiliate in Somerville. He came to the firm as a member of the law department in 1953.

Mr. Miller, 41, is a member of the American, New York and New Jersey Bar Associations, the Mercer County Bar Association, the Association of the Bar of the City of New York and the law section of the Phamaceutical Manufacturers Association. He also serves as magistrate of Princeton Township.

Kathleen Moorehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Moorehead, Jr., 16 Rosedale Road, has returned to her position as travel representative at American Express Co., 10 Nassau Street, after having spent the past year on the West Coast.

Why the Mercedes-Benz 230SL costs $6343

Top speed is 124 mph. Handling equals today's great sports cars. But the 230SL's genius lies in comfort no sports car has ever matched: chair-like seats that literally breathe, for example. Read more about one of the most desirable sports machines ever built.

THE Mercedes-Benz 230SL is definitly not fun for the whole family. It's a two-seater machine built for the pleasures of driving.

As such, it succeeds brilliantly: "This combination of absolute security, complete stability, and plain old hell-raising fun must be driven to be believed," states Car and Driver magazine.

Mercedes-Benz takes serious pains to provide this pleasure.

From start to finish of assembly, the 230SL passes a total of 8,117 inspections. Its 6-cylinder, fuel injection engine is hand assembled with pistons matched to within 1/100th of a millimeter.

The completed engine runs at least 75 minutes on two test stands, finishing with a pro-til it became boring or illegal.

An Einspritzer—fuel injection system—replaces carburetors and helps make this one of the most responsive engines for its size in the world. And one of the smoothest. Its unobtrusive power is also one reason why, unlike most sports cars, the 230SL makes such an ideal long-distance tourer.

What's in a name: The 230 in 230SL stands for 2.30 liters of engine displacement. The "S" stands for Super, the "L" for Light.

sides of the rocker panels that are sealed off before priming are protected nonetheless: they're zinc-coated before assembly.

Sumptuous living

Visibility in the 230SL is so airy it is eerie. You sit high, the car's waist is low, and side windows arch up over 15 inches. You watch the road ahead, not the hood. The psychological edge is worth an extra 5 mph.

You sit in a contoured, heavily padded problem; you can set your own comfort standards with a separate group of heater controls.

The 230SL is decidedly not a family carryall. But you can tuck 7 cubic feet of luggage in the trunk. You can stow another 5 cubic feet, or a smallish relative, in the carpeted area behind the seats.

A 4-speed, fully synchronized transmission with floor shift is standard equipment. In its place you can specify a 4-speed automatic transmission, also with floor shift.

Even people who hate automatics relent with this one; it can be shifted like a manual gearbox, there is no soggy lag in acceleration, and it is so efficient that fuel economy virtually equals manually equipped 230SLs.

Power steering is also available at extra cost. It is generally regarded as the best such system in the world, since it reduces steering effort but not road feel—and does so progressively, coming into play only when needed.

Three 230SL models

You can choose from 3 models: the Roadster, with convertible top, at $6185*; the Coupe,

Six Princeton residents studying at Rutgers College of Arts and Sciences were among 362 named to the fall semester Dean's List. Included were juniors John P. Burnett, Rt. 27; Dino Fiabane, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fiabane, 31 Leavitt Lane; and Frederick C. Stroup, son of Dr. and Mrs. Chester R. Stroup, 111 Jefferson Road.

Harrison J. Uhl of Collins, Uhl and Hoisington, 221 Witherspoon Street, has been appointed to the admissions council of Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh. He will serve a three-year term as alumni advisor at the Princeton Day School.

Michael P. Sweeney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Sweeney, 181 N. Harrison Street, received an early promotion to Army first private E-2 following completion of basic combat training at Fort Dix. He was granted the promotion two moths earlier than usual because of his performances on tests of riflery, physical combat and leadership. He is a graduate of Princeton High School.

Jeremiah P. Leahy, River Road, has completed a water supply course at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where he was trained in the methods of purifying water and converting sea water to drinking water. He entered the Army last January and completed basic training at Fort Dix.

men Carl Giese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Giese, 903 Lake Drive, and John Frazer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazer, 21 Tyson Lane, were also named to the Rutgers' Dean's Lits.

Michael D. Marcson, son of Professor and Mrs. Simon Marcson, 36 Marion Road, will study this summer in the Goethe Institute in Kochein, Germany. A graduate of Princeton High and Brown University where he was awarded

Dianne F. Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Weber, Parkside Drive, has been named to the Dean's List at Colby Junior College, New London, New Hampshire. A graduate of Princeton High School she was a freshman in the liberal arts program.

The completed engine runs at least 75 minutes on two test stands, finishing with a prolonged burst at peak speed.

The completed 230SL then zips from the factory to the test track for a brisk performance check. If it's good enough for the inspector, it's good enough to sell.

Handling for experts

Only a skilled professional driver could take the 230SL up to its road holding limits.

"The car's cornering power is so high that one simply goes roaring into the turn, chooses his line, steers, and opens the throttle to taste. The result is a smoothly negotiated corner that will make your passenger think you're a virtuoso, and drivers of other cars wish that they had taken the bus."—Car and Driver.

Some clues to the 230SL's handling mastery: it stands a mere 4 feet, 4 inches high—yet measures nearly 6 feet wide. And its track is so broad that those chubby 14-inch tires seem to bulge out from the body sides.

NOTE: These tires are a breakthrough in themselves. They were designed to suit the car—using advanced radial ply construction. Their tread design and tenacity help explain why this car literally sticks to the road.

Because of their decisive role in the 230SL's handling, Mercedes-Benz refuses to mount anything less.

You ride on a patented Mercedes-Benz fully independent suspension, with single-joint low-pivot rear swing axle. A few years ago, this same design carried the Mercedes-Benz 300SLR sports-racing car to a world championship.

Big 9.9-inch front disc brakes snub you down to a halt without fade or swerve. The 230SL holds Road & Track magazine's record for fast stopping times.

Einspritzmotor

The 230SL is only stretched to its limit when the speedometer needle nudges 124 mph. You could level off at 100 mph and stay there un-

At 2855 lbs, the 230SL is anything but flimsy. Mercedes-Benz rally driver Eugen Boehringer underscored the point: he won the gruelling Liége-Sofia-Liége Rally in one.

The squeaks, rattles and groans of hard use and age won't intrude on the 230SL. There's nothing to squeak, rattle or groan: the body is welded up, not bolted together. Then it's unhurriedly hand finished, slathered with undercoating, coated with two primer layers and painted twice with enamel.

A hidden virtue: Vital areas such as the inseat that resembles a chair, not the typical sports car "bucket."

Describing the 230SL's seats, Britain's Motor magazine said, "They grip, support, relax and ventilate your body supremely well."

The backs also recline. And thousands of tiny holes in the upholstery material keep air circulating. Two large slots on the rear of both backrests allow pent-up heat to escape from inside the seats.

Passengers: The driver may prefer too much or too little heat for your taste. No

You can choose from 3 models: the Roadster, with convertible top, at $6185*; the Coupe, an all-weather removable metal hardtop, at $6343*; and the Roadster/Coupe, at $6587*.

You can flip the convertible top up or down singlehanded, in seconds. It stows flush under a protective steel cover.

"The detachable hardtop is so beautifully engineered that it doesn't look as though it should come off at all," comments Autocar magazine. Note the concave roof of this hardtop. An ingeniously simple means of expanding visibility, as in turning up the brim of a sombrero.

In addition to the 230SL's tangible assets, many owners enjoy the simple fact that it is a Mercedes-Benz.

WATCHING CLOSELY as workmen uncrate a sculpture of the late President John F. Kennedy and his son, John, is the Rev. John J. Reilly (left), Father Reilly, pastor of St. Augustine's School in Franklin Park, is the originator of the idea of the sculpture, which will be decided on Fathers' Day.

awarded to Taylor Enterprises of Red Bank, which submitted a bid of $3,449—lowest of five received. The fence will be seven feet high topped off with three strands of barbed wire.

Non-Resident Use? The question of opening the pool's competitive swimming program to non-resident was raised by Mrs. George Fremon, 211 Western Way. She read a letter to the board in which she noted that once the pools are complete, "Princeton will have the only Olympic facility in the state of New Jersey."

Mrs. Fremon's contended there are many youngsters in and around Princeton who have the potential to become outstanding swimmers. Some of these, she said, are current- ly traveling regularly to Philadelphia for training because of the lack of facilities here. Now they will be able to train on their home grounds, she said—or should be allowed to.

Among the points made by Mrs. Fremon were: 1) non-residents would use the pool only during off hours set aside for the competitive program; 2) they would add to the income of the pools without increasing the costs there would be a fee charged; 3)the coaching they would receive would help strengthen the regular winter swimming program in Princeton; 4) the larger and more skilful the group, the better; 5) the existence of a successful swimming team would add to the excitement and drawing power of the Community Park pools.

In reply, Mr. Barr said the board has considered the problem in general and had mixed emotions on it. The issue became academic for this summer anyway, when the board, in executive session, decided not to have a competitive swim program this year. The pool will not be ready until July 15 and possibly even later, and Robert Clotworthy, University swimming coach, who will conduct the competitive program indicated that he would not be available during August.

"Rather than start with an inferior program," said Mr. Barr, "we decided to wait until next year. This would also give us more time to think about it."

Tennis Delayed, Too. A combination of weather, minor labor problems and a snag from the sub-contractor erecting the fence around the courts has caused a delay in the completion schedule for the tennis courts. If all three problems fall in line, Mr. Barr indicated, the fast-dry courts should be ready by June 20. "That's the date we're shooting for," he said.

As for the herd scurface courts, Mr. Barr reported that the last word he received on them was "sometime in the middle of July."

"Actually it's foolish to try and pick a date when they'll be open," said board member John Conroy, "because there are so many variables."

Mr. Barr also informed the board that C. Edward Christian, who had been supervisor of the Princeton Playgrounds summer program for the past 20 years, has resigned to accept a supervisory position in the Trenton playgrounds system. It was accepted with regret.

DEDICATION PLANNED

For Kennedy Sculpture. St. Augustine's School in Franklin Park has received a sculpture of the late President John F. Kennedy and his son John entitled "Father's Love." It will be unveiled at a dedication ceremony on Sunday, June 19, Father's Day.

The sculpture was sketched and produced in clay model form by the Italian artist Ferruccio Verzoni. Spartace Falla of Pietrasanta, Italy, carved the work, which stands six and one half feet high and is made of white marble. The carving took about ten months.

The idea for the work originated with the Rev. John J. Reilly, pastor of St. Augustine's and superintendent of the school. Funds were raised through contributions from parishioners and friends.

Dedication ceremonies will be held at 2:30 on Father's Day and will be the highlight of the 10-day annual parish Family Festival, which runs from June 16-26.

TIGERS WIN LAST ONE

From Yale in Baseball. Nearly nine out of ten of those who had marched to Clarke Field, or who had been present to watch the traditional parade, had departed by the time the seventh inning arrived. The few hundred who remained saw history pleasantly made as the Princeton baseball team came from behind to defeat Yale, 6-4, in the last such game to be played as part of the commencement program.

It did require, actually, either a love of college baseball or a deep-seated faith in Princeton's ability to turn defeat into victory to keep anyone on the scene. By the end of the third inning, the Tigers — twice victims of a mediocre Eli nine earlier this season — were trailing, 4-0, and hadn't collected a safe base knock.

By the top of the fifth, starter Graham Marcett good enough to make the first Eastern League team this spring — was on his way to an early shower. He had been charged with four runs — four of them unearned — and was out of his fourth straight game before it was over.

The call went out to sophomore Bob Sedditch, a left-handed sophomore who hadn't seen an inning of action in more than a month. By-passed was senior Tom Scott, who two short years ago had blanked Yale, 3-0, for the first shutout handed the Blue in a reunion game in 14 years. Scott's control was so far gone on his warm-ups that he finished his occasionally brilliant, regrettably spotty career on the bench.

It would have been difficult to quote the odds for a Princeton victory with the Tigers trailing, 4-0, the inexperienced Seditch on the mound and Yale putting runners aboard in every inning. But the Tiger sophomore was stingy in the clutches, fanned six and hung five goosegegs on the visitors' portion of the scoreboard.

Princeton, meanwhile, chipped away with single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth and then jammed three across in the lucky seventh. Sedditch himself lighted the flame with a one-out single to right.

Frank Biondi, Captain Ron Landeck and sophomore Bob Weber followed with safeties, Weber's solid double to left the big blow. Ahead by 6-4, Sedditch slammed the door shut.

Around the campus and in the reunion tents, no one knew what form of athletic event would replace the Yale game in the future. A tradition that was almost 100 years old had been laid peacefully to rest.

SEVEN WERE ALL-IVY. Of the 17 seniors on the Princeton football team who have completed their careers, seven received all-Ivy recognition at the end of the 1965 season. Sealed are Bob Bedell, quarterback; Kit Mill, center; Rich Reinis, tackle; Dick Rogers, guard; Captain Paul Savidge, tackle; Bruce Gates, wingback; Ron Landeck fullback; Carl Sabler, tackle; Gary Gilbert, guard. Standing Chuck Merlini, defensive back; Jim LaFountaine, defensive back; Stas Maliszewski, linebacker; Jim Stoops, tackle; Lauson Cusbdollar, end; Bert Kerstetter, fullback; Clint Johnson, defensive back; Chuck Cushdollar, Reinis, Rogers, Landeck and Gozolak were named to the All-Ivy Team on offense; Savidge and Maliszewski on defense. Princeton's eighth all-Ivy choice (more than any other college received) was safetyman Marty Eichelberger, a Junior.

CREW TO SYRACUSE

National Regatta Saturday. There are too many favorites and dark-horses in the advance chart on the 64th Intercollegiate Rowing Association Regatta at Syracuse Saturday for Princeton to be given much of a chance of a surprise finish.

Of the 15 entries in the annual three-mile race, the Tigers have already lost over varying distances to Brown, Cornell and Pennsylvania. Added to that are such factors as the presence of a highly-regarded Washington eight; other West Coast crews representing California, Stanford and (for the first time) UCLA; and the ability of Navy, a perennial slew-starter, to make solid progress during the season.

In 1965, the midshipmen lost to Princeton by a length in April and then won the national title on Lake Onondaga in June. The Tigers finished 14th at Syracuse that day.

The early line has Washington and Brown as the co-favorites, with the high rating of the Rhode Islanders on unusual example of how much progress a college can make in rowing in a short time. Six years ago, the Bruins had no full-time coach in the sport; this season, they lost only to unbeaten Harvard, and Harvard will—as always—row against Yale at New London while the IRA is staged at Syracuse.

Princeton's freshman and jayvee crews will also race on Onondaga Saturday, the former over two miles, Washington and unbeaten Penn are favored in the event for first-year shells. Any Princeton finish better than seventh will be considered a satisfactory achievement.

RCA ON TOP TWICE

In Business Softball. RCA A in the Western Division and RCA B in the Eastern Division took sole possession of first place this week as both defeated the leading contenders for the division championships.

RCA A, previously tied with McGraw-Hill for first place honors in the West with a 4-1 record, edged by its rivals, 12-8. It was the fourth straight victory for RCA, and gave hurler Wally Reichert his third triumph against no losses.

Supplying the offensive punch for the winners were Max Pinkint, who went three for three and had two RBIs, and Jim Clark and Jud Kodner, both of whom went three for four. Pitcher Reichert helped his own cause with a double and triple in four times at bat. McGraw-Hill, led by John Mayer who was four for four at the plate, outhit RCA 13-8, but couldn't take advantage of the scattered safeties to gain the win.

Doug Besomworth's hitting and pitching helped RCA B drop Gulf Oil from its share of first place in the Eastern Division as RCA rolled to an 11-7 victory to pick up its fifth win against one less. Besomworth hit his fifth homerun of the season in the contest while holding his opponents scoreless until the seventh inning.

In that frame, ETS rallied around Paul Harmen's homerun to pull close, but RCA managed to hang on for the

In other league action Accelerator moved into a three-way tie for second place in the West on the strength of a 2-0 triumph over RCA. Astro. Pitcher Jack hurled his first shutout in four years, allowing only six hits while his teammates contributed 11 to the attack. Accelerator scored the winning runs in the sixth on a single by Jerry Sheriden and a home run by Barry Hibbs.

Bill Gahagan's three for three performance at the plate, including a home run, gave Columbian Carbon six RBIs and powered them to a 10-3 win over luckless Opinion Research, firmly entrenched in the cellar of the Western Division. Gahagan, credited with the win for his mound chores, was supported by the three for three hitting of Jim Chlorello and Joe Schmiek.

In Eastern play, American Cyanamid won its battle to stay out of the cellar as it dropped Western Electric, 7-5. Hopewell TV moved into a tie for third by handing Shell Oil an 18-10 set-back.

GETS "P" FOR PERFECT ATTENDANCE: Mrs. Robert Bennett of Skillman receives a Princeton High athletic "P" from her son Bart for attending all Little Tiger track meets during the four years her son was a member of the squad. McQUADE WINS HONOR

As PHS Top Athlete. Bill McQuade has been selected by the coaches and members of the Princeton High School administration to receive the honor award as the school's all-round athlete of 1965-66. It was presented at the Athletic Association's Awards Banquet and Program held last week at the high school.

Vince Boccanfuso won the Jerry Cypress Award in track, and Wilbur Hines the Wilhem D. Wolman Basketball Award. McQuade's counterpart among the girls was Judy Hanlon, who received the Honor Athlete Award. Valerie Hackenberg was nominated by a committee to receive the Mary Ellen Muelki Award.

The latter is presented in memory of Mary Ellen Muelkin, a member of the Class of 1952 who died when she was 16. It is based on athletic ability but it also embraces scholastic and extracurricular achievement as well. Four senior girls received charms, representing a top accumulation of athletic "points." They were Mary Ann Cook, Anne Breitzall, Miss Hanlon and Miss Hackenberg.

McQuade's Honor Award is presented to the senior boy who participates in two or more sports on a varsity level and who displays qualities of sportsmanship and school citizenship. Bill was a playmaker on the basketball team, was co-captain of the soccer team and captain of the baseball team.

His athletic achievement is more notable in light of his size. Only 5-9, 145 lbs, Bill stands as a rebuttle to the youth who feels he is too small to compete in sports on a varsity level. Previous winners include Roger Madden, '65; Larry Madden '64; John Kowalski '63; Charles Pemberton '62 and Allen Wood '61.

The Jerry Cypress Award is presented to the senior track performer who through his outstanding play and inspiring character has contributed most to the PHS track team. An outstanding sprinter, Vince Boccanfuso, the recipient, also competed in the broad jump and high jump. As a junior, he was named the outstanding runner at an area meet at Lawrenceville School but was hampered somewhat this spring by a football injury.

He is the fifth to receive the Award, named for a track performer who died in an accident. Previous winners were Bill Aiken '65; Jim Beechell, '64; Henry Schmidt, '63 and Thomas Bogis '62.

The William D. Wolman Award is presented in memory of William D. Wolman, a member of the PHS basketball team of 1932-36, who gave his life in the line of duty at Okinawa in April, 1945. It is presented to the outstanding player and sportsman on the team.

This year's recipient, Wilbur Hines, scored over 1,000 points in his three-year career. As a senior, he tallied 427 points. Some previous winners: Kerry Klink '65; Larry Madden '64; Henry Schmidt '63; and George Tucker '62.

In all, athletic director Joseph Jingoli reported there were 529 letters awarded to varsity, jayvee and freshman

RICK, BILL GOETZ WIN

In Penguin Racing, Rick Goetz with Bill Goetz as crew finished first in Sunday's racing on wind-swept Lake Carnegie in the Penguin Class with 22.1 points. They edged Larry Raffaelli, who had 20.1.

Art Keiser finished third, Dexter Miller, who finished fourth, led the fleet around the course each time until a broken tiller sidelined him in the third race. The high winds forced the 14-foot sloop owners to keep their boats on shore.

On Saturday, the first half of the team races between the Carnegie Club and the Swartswood Yacht Club ended with the Princeton team on top, three races to one. High scorer for the victors was Walt Gibson with 38 points, followed by Bob Watson, 33 ½. The second half of the match will be held June 25 on Lake Swartswood.

CRAFT'S SURPRISES

In West Windsor League. With the second half of the West Windsor Little League nearing the midway stage, Craft Cleaners has posted three straight victories to earn a surprise first-place tie with Thorne's Pharmacy.

Last week Craft scored a 5-3 win over First National Bank and a 6-4 verdict over American Cyanamid. Credited with the victories were hurlers Rick Probasco and Frank Steffe. Supplying the offensive punch at the plate were Larry Martz, Rich Cella, Don Mortz and Mike Griffith.

In other league play, Ellsworth AC had problems with the celler-dwelling West Windsor Lions and dropped an 11-3 decision. The Lions ruffled Ellsworth pitchers for 12 hits, including a grand slam by Rick Rogers. Rogers gained the victory for his mound work as well as his hitting. He was supported by Barclay Poling who went three-for-three at the plate.

The Ellsworths managed to gain a split on the week's play as Pete Zigler hurled them to a 6-2 win over the First National Bank. Zigler chalked up 13 strikeouts in going the distance. Zigler, together with Mark Ellsworth and Bob Basco, also supplied the timely hits for the victors.

GAS
150th ANNIVERSARY
First used in street lighting 150 years ago, gas today is a versatile energy source at home and on the job.
In June 1816, America's first gas utility, the Gas Light Company of Baltimore, was authorized to light the city's streets. This month, we celebrate the 150th anniversary of the gas industry.
Innovations in the use of gas brought the industry a long way. It has become the sixth largest in the country. Gas, the versatile energy source, both heats and cools residential and business buildings . . . It cooks meals in homes and restaurants . . . it heats water . . . It dries clothes . . . and huge quantities of gas are utilized to make thousands of useful products.
Representing our 1,230,000 gas customers, we say "Congratulations" on the gas industry's 150th birthday.

EIGHT IN A ROW

For West Windsor. West Windsor's baseball team has completed its eight-game schedule without a defeat this spring as the township's varsity athletic teams wound up the most successful sports year in the school's history. The basketball team had finished with an 8-2 record while the soccer team won seven and lost two.

Leading the baseball team were coach Robert Keys and assistant coach Ron Schnorbus. The seventh and eighth grade players scored double victories over Valley Road (9-4, 3-2), the Peddie freshman (16-1, 7-6) and Pennington (7-2, 13-4), while notching single wins over St. Paul's (7-1) and Witherspoon (3-2).

Left-hander Jeff Haring was credited with seven of the eight victories, with Joe DiMeglio gaining the decision in the WWitherspoon game. Haring struck out 72 batters in his 39 innings of mound work. Jeff Wetterling provided the necessary relief hurling in three games.

Supplying the offensive spark were catcher Wayne Kalinowski, team captain, who finished with a .538 batting average and two homeruns, three triples and two doubles; third baseman-pitcher Wetterling, .440; center fielder Joe Cimerola, .391; and left fielder Sam Jackson, .364.

Others helping West Windsor to the perfect season included first baseman Walter Dimitruk, .333; second baseman Rick Boykin, .286; shortstop Jim Marten, .300; right fielders Lee Langston, .250, Keith McKnight, .333, and Harry Schaeffer, .250.

The baseball players were awarded their letters at an athletic awards dinner in the Dutch Neck School last week along with other varsity competitors, both boys and girls.

ETS STILL UNBEATEN

In Girls' Softball. With pitcher Dottie Moore leading the way, Educational Testing Service continues to maintain its perfect season slate and a firm grip on first place in the Girls' Softball League.

ETS downed both Bell Telephone, 25-14, and RCA, 8-7, in last week's action. McGraw-Hill and Princeton Hospital share second place in the league with 3-1 records, McGraw-Hill on the strength of a disputed 4-2 triumph over RCA. Sheila Montgomery was credited with the victory in that contest and Betty Phillips slammed a homerun.

Princeton Hospital remained in contention by bombing Opinion Research, 20-2 to give hurler Paulette Kreter plenty of support. Pat Brown hit a four-bagger in the game for the winners.

In the bottom half of the standings, Bell Telephone managed to lose two games, while playing in only one, last week. The League managers awarded the previous week's game to RCA. Because of the decision, Bell Telephone dropped into the cellar in a tie with ORC.

The standings:

| | W. | L. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| ETS | 4 | 0 | 1.000 |
| McGraw-Hill | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| Princeton Hospital | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| RCA | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| N. J. Bell | 0 | 4 | .000 |
| ORC | 0 | 4 | .000 |

YOUTH IS FINED $105

Loses License One Year.

Miles W. Jankovic, 16, Route 130, Hightstown, was fined $105 Monday by Borough Magistrate Theodore T. Tams Jr. and had his license suspended for one year for reckless driving. In criminal court, a charge of fleeing the police, lodged against Jankovic by Ptl. John J. Bellow Jr., was dismissed.

Police said they had been on the lookout for Jankovic's car when they spotted it last week on Washington Road. With its siren sounding and red lights flashing, the patrol car made a U-turn and gave chase at speeds reaching 95 miles per hour. Moments later, they found the fleeing car abandoned in a Princeton Junction railroad yard.

The same charge — fleeing from the police — cost Herbert T. Owens Jr., 23, of Savanah, Ga., $55 in criminal court. He reportedly refused to obey a signal from Sgt. Arthur Gallant Sunday in front of Sgt. Paul's Church, brushing the officer with his fender in the process and continuing on. For the latter offense, he was fined $25 in traffic court.

Brett W. Smith, 18, 485 Kingston Road, paid $28 and had his license revoked for 10 days for speeding. Another speeder, Gilbert C. Turner, 19, 159 Cedar Lane, paid $16.

For careless driving, Richard B. Watson, 19, 13 Euclid Avenue, Kingston, surrendered his license for 10 days and paid a fine of $15. Roy E. Sloan, 23, 272 Witherspoon Street, pleaded guilty to driving on a learner's permit without the presence of a licensed driver. Cost: $15.

---

Two Princeton drivers, Joseph W. Tadlock, 39, 171 John Street, and John A. Sampson, 3rd, 29, Bunker Hill Road, had their licenses suspended by the state under its point system. The latter lost his for 45 days; Mr. Tadlock for three months.

---

In criminal court, Byron B. Jones, 62, 272 Witherspoon Street, was sent to Mercer County Jail in default of bail. Jones is charged with possession of burglary tools and breaking and entering. He had allegedly entered two homes on Cleveland Lane this month and was apprehended in the home of Bruce French, 10 Cleveland Lane.

---

HOUSE BREAKER CAUGHT

By Township Pair. David E. Burnett, 46, of Trenton, is being held in $10,000 bail in Mercer County Jail, after his apprehension last week by the owner of a Township home.

Burnett was discovered at 1 a.m. Saturday morning in the home of Thurland T. Wilkinson, 22 Shady Brook Lane, by Mr. Wilkinson's son, Thurland Jr. Burnett fled the house but was tackled on the lawn by the youth. His father was standing guard with a club when Sgt. Michael Lisi and Ptl. David Funk arrived to make the arrest.

Burnett was charged with breaking and entering and scheduled to appear before Magistrate Glen B. Miller Jr. Wednesday for a preliminary hearing. He is no stranger to the Township police, having been jailed in 1963 on eight counts of breaking and entering, all occuring in Township homes in the eastern section.

"He's the one who's been the cause of a majority of the break-ins that have alarmed people in the western area and around the lake," commented Sgt. Fred Porter. In May, a group of MacLean Circle residents appeared before Township Committee to complain of a rash of breaking and enterings. A resident of MacLean Circle reported that of 54 homes in his area, 15 had been broken into in 20 attempts over the past three years.

if you vote

NO

ON SCHOOL MERGER

1. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that the John Witherspoon School will always be the permanent school of Princeton Borough for Kindergarten through 8th grade — and this will assure a flexible program allowing a child to progress in each subject as rapidly or as slowly as his talents permit, throughout the eight grades.

2. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that the Borough elementary and high school system will not be broken up or destroyed — ALL children in the Borough from kindergarten through 8th grade, regardless of RACE, CREED, COLOR or ABILITY will all go to the same school; use the specially designed educational facilities of the new John Witherspoon School for each age group; and will be guided by the same teachers, principals and supervisors throughout their entire elementary school education.

3. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that NO child in the Borough will commute to the Township's outdated and overcrowded Valley Road junior high school or to the Community Park primary school — two schools, two principals, and two different purposes separated by a main heavy-traffic highway.

4. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that there will be NO BUSSING, NO FORCED INTEGRATION, and that the Princeton Plan will be preserved and NO SCHOOL RACIAL ISSUES will develop.

5. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that taxes will NOT go up in the Borough due to the additional improvements and school buildings in the Township because of the increased population and zoning changes, already there is great pressure for smaller lots.

6. A vote NO will GUARANTEE the Township another opportunity to discuss, develop and adopt a modified K-12 system which would be fair and equitable to the Borough as well as the Township. The Chandler Report states that everything the Township could do in a separate high school would be done better in the excellent Princeton High School.

7. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that there will always be an outstanding Princeton High School with a 1,400-1,500 optimum student body composed of students within this area—because there are so many alternatives open to the Borough.

8. A vote NO will GUARANTEE that Mrs. Dorothea Lummis will be the Supervisor of Instruction for the John Witherspoon K-8 School; Mrs. Loren Wesley Johnson, the new principal of the John Witherspoon K-8 School will remain in the position; and Dr. John McKenna will remain as the Superintendent of the Township Schools.

We URGE you to vote NO on June 21st. Only in this way will we be able to move on and find the right solution that will be fair both to the Borough and to the Township.

Borough voters defeated this same referendum last October. Make your NO vote count again — Vote NO on June 21st.

Harrison Bridge Closed

The Harrison Street Bridge was closed Monday by the County for repairs.

It will remain closed for about three weeks. Meanwhile, southbound traffic toward U. S. 1 will be detoured via Nassau Street to Washington Road.

SKIDS DURING RAIN

Truck Hits Tree on 206. A dump truck owned by the Opal Garden Market, Alexander Road, skidded on Route 206 Friday afternoon during a brief rain and slammed into a tree. The mishap occurred opposite the Rug Mart.

The driver, Jose A. Maldonado, 22, of Canal Road, received scratches and bruises. He told police he lost control and his truck left the roadway skidding sideways. After knocking down some shrubbery, it struck a tree with its left side.

News Of The CHURCHES

DAY CAMP TO OPEN

For All Faiths. A high-powered 10-year-old returned from the seashore one summer and told his family, "One of the things we did was on Sundays. We would get sea shells, the pretty ones, and other things we liked, and we put them at a kind of altar we made on the beach. And we said prayers that we made up . . ."

The relation of a child's world to the teaching of the Bible, usually confined to a Sunday School room, moves outdoors this month in Princeton through an inter-denominational day camp for boys and girls sponsored by the Princeton Pastor's Association. The fee is $2.

The camp, open to youngsters who have completed 4th, 5th, or 6th grade, has a wide-ranging program developed by the Rev. Ralph Chandler of First Presbyterian Church. Centered at All Saints' Chapel, Van Dyke Road, the activities will include games, hikes, team sports, nature study, and a variety of group and individual activities including cook-outs, crafts, music, and drama.

Campers will not only hear ideas, but sing about them, act them out and write about them. Their ideas and materials will be used in the daily, non-denominational worship service.

Two books have been approved by the Pastors' for use at the day camp: "Christmas Near and Far" for 4th graders and "They Knew Jesus," for 5th and 6th graders, both published by the Lutheran Church of America.

Larry Trettin of Princeton Theological Seminary, who directed teenagers' activities at "The Tomb" this year, will serve as camp director. Assisting him will be Jonathan Jones, a student at Wooster College, and Margaret Rudolph of the seminary.

The Junior Day Camp opens on Monday, June 27, and continues through July 8, excluding July 4th. The hours are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Campers will bring lunches, with milk provided for them.

Car pools will be furnished through each church. Registration may be made through the churches or by calling Mr. Trettin at First Church (924-0103) between 9 a.m. and noon on weekdays.

Dr. Carter Smith, moderator of the Presbytery of New Brunswick, the Rev. David Crawford, secretary to Princeton Seminary; the Rev. Dr. E. ## SELECT CHOIR DIRECTOR

For Princeton Methodist. Ernest T. Brahm will assume direction of the adult and high school choirs at Princeton Methodist Church in September.

He is director of the U. S. Steel Chorus, Fairless Hills, Pa., and conducts the vocal program at Hamilton High School East. For some time he has been tenor solist at Trinity Episcopal Cathedt Cathedral, Trenton.

A graduate of Trenton State College with a master's degree from Eastman School of music, Mr. Brahm is married and the father of two children.

ALMOST AS OLD AS THE WOODS BEHIND IT!

Try this quaint button on for size, and if it doesn't fit, have it altered. The location (pretty Township road not far from the Borough line) and the grounds (prettily planted and beautifully treed) make enlarging not only feasible, but potentially profitable. As it stands, with perhaps a bit of personalizing, the five room house is an appealing retirement home for people who like the feel of the country without its isolation. The land alone is nearly worth the price of $28,500

Beauty ON THE SQUARE

By Archimedes (Bernard)

Nothing contributes so much to a woman's over-all beauty and attractiveness as shining, healthy hair. No matter how well dressed you are, if your hair is dull, unattractively styled, the whole illusion of the well-groomed woman is lost.

If you are faced with a particular hair problem, the person to whom you should go for help is your hairdresser. As a thoroughly professional hairdresser, I am concerned with the continuing good health of my patron's hair. It is up to me to remind these women, and you, also, of the good grooming necessities that go hand-in-hand with a lustrous coiffure.

It's so important to have the proper hair-cut that fits your facial features and personality, a good individually-tailored permanent to give the right amount of body to a particular head of hair, to learn all there is about proper hair care, so that you know you will be well dressed from your head to your toes. Come to the TAVERNWOOD BEAUTY MANOR, 69 Palmer Square West, or call 924-3983. We really care about your hair!
